

LIBRARIANS DAY

The Federation of Genealogical Societies invites librarians to attend the annual conference's Librarians Day, Wednesday, August 29, 2012. This annual event, sponsored by ProQuest, is designed for librarians, archivists, and other information professionals serving family history researchers.

This year's featured speakers are:

- Dr. Edwin C. Bridges
Alabama Department of Archives and History
- Amy Johnson Crow
Importance of Your Genealogy Collection's Website
- Curt Witcher
Sources and Resources: Mining the Gold from Genealogical & Historical Serials

Learn about the treasures found in area repositories as representatives of Birmingham-area libraries and archives present a panel discussion highlighting their collections.

Registration for Librarians Day is $10. To register, visit <http://www.fgs.org/2012conference/>. Click on "Librarians Day" then select "Register for Librarians Day." E-mail any questions about Librarians Day to kharrison@ancestry.com.

Librarians are also invited to register for the entire FGS 2012 conference.
